

African-American Heritage DVD Notes

1. Africa is a continent with _____ separate countries.
2. The Sahara Desert is the _____ in the world. The Nile River is the _____ in the world. The Pyramids of Egypt are some of the _____ man-made structures in the world.
3. Most people in West Africa speak at least two languages—their own group language and either English or _____.
4. Say it in YORUBA, a West-African Language. Give the English translation for each:
Bawo ni- _____
Ore- _____
Oseun- _____ Odabo- _____
5. NEWSFLASH: The brightly colored cloth called _____ was invented by the Asanti people of _____ who long ago used silk to make the cloth for kings and queens.
6. FIELD TRIP: Name two of the foods you saw at the West African food market in Virginia: _____ and _____.
7. Anansi the _____ was deep in a dream about food. Anansi the _____ tales are often told by the griots of West Africa. This particular tale explains why the _____'s waist is so skinny even today.
8. Count in More, another West African language. Write the English number for each:
yebore- _____ yobe- _____ yibou- _____ yopoe- _____ tambo- _____ nee- _____ nasse- _____ we- _____ nou- _____ piga- _____
9. NEWSFLASH: Kwanzaa is the African-American holiday that starts on December _____.
10. The traditional song about returning to Africa was called Gaale _____ Rabi.