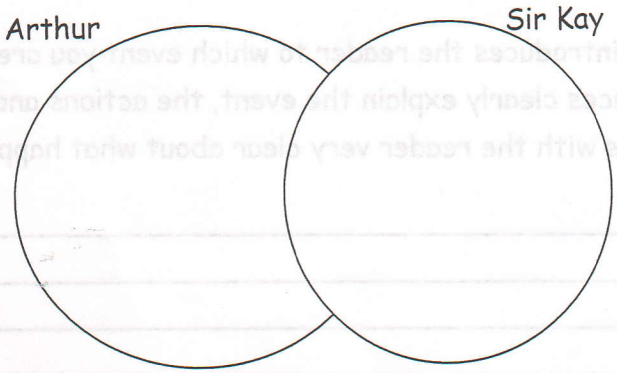
"Young Arthur"

English Anthology pgs. 828-831

1. Compare/contrast Arthur and Sir Kay:



What characteristcs do Arthur and Sir Kay have in common? You may list them here:

2. Why was it such an act of bravery for Arthur to return to the square?

3. How do the minor characters (Merlin, Sir Ector, Sir Kay) advance the plot (in other words, how do the actions, words, or deeds of these characters move the story along)?

4. What is the theme of the story?

5. Pretend you are Sir Kay and tell about one of the following from your point of view in a well-written paragraph:

   -the arrival of Arthur at Sir Ector's home or

   -teaching Arthur to fight with a sword or

   -receiving the sword from Arthur, realizing its significance, and claiming to be king

Be sure your topic sentence introduces the reader to which event you are writing about, and that each of your sentences clearly explain the event, the actions and words of the involved characters, and ends with the reader very clear about what happened.
