

Elizabethan Words

Anon
Aroint
As you will
Belike
Betimes
By your leave
Carouse
Chide
Comely
Cutpurse
E'em
Enow
Excellent well
Ere
Fie
Forswear
Grammercy
Good morrow
Hello!
How fare thee?
Huzzah
Maid or Maiden
Marry
Mayhap
Morrow
N'er
Nonpariel
Oft
In Faith
Indeed
In truth
Perchance
Poppet
Prating
Pray pardon me
Pray tell
Prithee
Privy
Stay

Translations

Later
Away
Okay, whatever
Perhaps
Early in the morning
Excuse me, please
Party!
Scold
Pretty
Thief
Evening
Enough
Cool
Before
A curse
To lie or cheat
Thank you
Good day
Shock or surprise
How are you?
Hooray
A young woman of virtue
Shock or surprise
Perhaps
Tomorrow
Never
A beauty
Often
In Truth
Really
Really
Maybe
A doll or child
Talking too much
Excuse me
Please tell me
Please
Bathroom
Stop or wait

Elizabethan Words

S'wounds

Tosspot

Verily

Wench

Wherefore

Wondrous well

Yonder

Your majesty, sire

Your highness

Your Excellency

Your Grace or Your Worship

Aye

Nay

Good Eve

Good Day

How Now

Well Met

Hark

Methinks

Yon

Go To

Translations

Wow!

Drunkard

Truthfully

A young woman

Why

Very good

Over there

King or Queen address

Prince or Princess address

Any other royal address

Member of the clergy address

Yes

No

Good evening

Hello

Hello

Hello

Listen

I think

There

Shock